FOREWORD

This book contains a list of people buried in the following cemeteries still in use in the county:

Claude
Goodnight
Washburn
Wayside

Old cemeteries not in use are also included, these are:

Lakeview
Mt. Pleasant
J.A. Ranch

Sources for this list were: marker inscriptions in the cemeteries, cemetery records of the Claude Cemetery Association in the Armstrong County Court House, and interviews with "Old Timers".

1946292

The inscriptions were taken in the summer of 1962 and added to in July of 1963, at which time the typing was finished. Those helping with the Claude Cemetery were: Inez Doshier, Myrle McClure, Doris Southall, Fay Carr, Kathryn Watson, Largo Watson. Edd Rodgers and Cotton Johnson furnished valuable information concerning dates and family relationships.

In order to locate graves in the Claude Cemetery, it is important to note the four sections which have been used in the list. At the bottom of this page is a sketch of the cemetery which should be helpful. A detailed map of the cemetery may be found in the office of the County Judge in the Court House.

IMPORTANT. Please note that there are blank pages in the back of the book to be used for additions and corrections. Feel free to use these pages in order to correct errors and to add to the value of this list for future genealogists.
